PSAL Eligibility Rules

All of our athletes, according to the PSAL eligibility rules, must maintain and adhere to the following:

- Student/athletes must accumulate a minimum of eight (8) credits, plus the most recent physical education class, for the two (2) semesters prior to the eligibility period. (This does not apply to the freshman class.)
- Student/athletes must pass 2 major credited classes (math, science, English, history, language), 2 minor credited classes (electives, resource), and one (1) physical education class in order to remain eligible to play each marking period.
- Student/athletes must maintain 80% attendance in school each marking period. When an athlete is absent, he/she must show his/her coach a valid absence note.
- Student/athletes will not be permitted to try-out, practice or participate in anyway until the medical and parent consent forms have been properly filled out, signed, and approved.
- Student/athletes must keep their coaches updated on any medical condition that might impact on their health.
- Students, who have been in high school longer than 4 years or 19 prior to July 1st, are no longer eligible.

I have read and understand the above information.
